How will you be affected if a permit is granted?

Any person who may be affected by the granting of a permit may object.

- If you object, Council must consider the objection unless you withdraw it.
- If you object you must state the reasons why and say how you would be affected by the grant of a permit.
- Council must reject an objection that it considers has been primarily made to secure or maintain a direct or indirect commercial advantage for the objector.
- Council must make a copy of every objection available at its office for any person to inspect during office hours.
- Council will not decide on an application until after the latest date shown on the notice you received or the notice in The Echo or on the site.
- If you object you will be notified in writing of Council's decision.
- If you object and are not satisfied with Council's decision you may appeal to the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal.
